

CHRONICLE 2005 - 2007

2005

- April 29 FFSJ Annual Meeting in Tampa. Addie Lou Harris, installing officer installed Rose Vickers, FFSJ President and Officers. The theme is "HARMONY AND KNOWLEDGE ARE THE KEYS TO JUDGING" for 2005-2007. District VIII Judges Council were the host for the FFSJ Annual Meeting with Lorene Junkin, Presiding Officer.
- September 14 FFSJ Board Meeting at FFGC Headquarters, Winter Park. The 2005-2007 FFSJ Yearbooks were given out to the District Directors. A Brick Paver has been ordered to be placed in the patio in honor of FFSJ former President, Lorene Junkin. Motion approved to purchase 250 FFSJ pins. District V was granted $500.00 for a Flower Show School. Board Members and Chairmen reports given. Peggy Nuse presented the program on "Peggy's Pet Peeves."
- Oct.30-Nov.1 Fall Symposium in Altamonte Springs, hosted by District VII Judges Council. Joanne Mulinare, Chairman

2006

- January 11 FFSJ Board Meeting at FFGC Headquarters, Winter Park. It was approved to hold the FFSJ Annual Meeting in 2006 in conjunction with the Fall Symposium in Palm Beach Gardens due to the National and State Conventions held in Florida in 2006. Accepted resignation of Emma Short, Historian with regrets. Nina Ring appointed Historian. Fall 2005 Symposium reported 51 Judges audited, presented $931.63 to FFSJ. Factual Notes mailed. Motion made and approved to design and purchase 20 FFSJ Past President's Pins- 10 pins for the former FFSJ Presidents. Motion made and approved on Standing Rule-Flower Show Schools. Board Members and Chairmen reports given. Program was presented by Gina Jogan, "Evaluating the Standard Flower Show."
- February 17 Twelve Master Judges from three Districts came to Tampa to judge the Books of Evidence for Flower Show Related Awards.
- March 5-7 Spring Symposium in Jacksonville, hosted by District IV Judges Council. Helen Howarth, Chairman.
- Sept. 13 FFSJ Board Meeting at FFGC Headquarters, Winter Park. Joanne Mullinare was elected the FFSJ 2007-2009 Nominating Chairman. Each District to elect one member to be on this committee. FFSJ gave $1000.00 for the 2007 FFGC Flower Show. The Evaluation Panel Standing Rule #4 was changed and adopted. FFGC Flower Show

Award #122 A,B,C,D, Flower Show Schedules and #123 were paid.
Board Members and Chairmen reports given. Gina Jogan presented a program on "Depth in Design."

Nov. 5-7 FFSJ 2006 Annual Meeting was held in Palm Beach Gardens hosted by District X. Annual Reports given by Officers and Chairmen.
Fall Symposium followed, Chairman Phyllis Gidley.

2007

January 17 FFSJ Board Meeting at FFGC Headquarters in Winter Park.
Nominating Chairman reported on 2007-2008 slate of Officers,
Spring issue of Factual Notes mailed. Officers and Chairmen gave reports. Program on the Horticulture Schedule for the FFGC State Flower Show was given by Tina Tuttle.

February 8-10 2007 NGC Instructors' Symposium held in Baton Rouge, LA.

March 9-11 FFGC 31st Biennial State Flower Show held in Orlando, FL.
FFSJ President appointed Judges Chairman. Invitations and assignments to Judges by FFSJ Standing Rules. Gifts and Thank you Notes were given to Judges.

March 26-28 Spring Symposium in Daytona Beach, hosted by District VI Judges Council. Pat Morgart, Chairman

May 3 FFSJ Fifty-eighth Annual Meeting held in Orlando at the FFGC State Convention. FFSJ President, Rose Vickers presiding. The changes and additions in the 2007 Handbook given out.
Carolyn Whitmer, Chaplain, and District Directors presented a touching Memorial for our deceased members. Annual reports given by Officers and Chairmen. Installation of all incoming District Directors.
Election and installation of the 2007-2008 Officers. District Directors presented the new Past President's Pin to nine former FFSJ Presidents.
Outgoing FFSJ President, Rose Vickers was presented a gift of appreciation of stretch containers.

"HARMONY AND KNOWLEDGE ARE THE KEYS TO JUDGING." was our theme. The wonderful programs at each meeting carried the KNOWLEDGE a step further for this FFSJ Council. District III and District V completed Flower Show Schools. District VI and District VIII to start Flower Show Schools in the fall.

ROSE VICKERS, FFSJ PRESIDENT