Every Detail Counts

Due Date: Most every award is due by the first Wednesday in December. Exceptions are listed in the description of the award ----for example Award #4 Nov. 1

You must have the award mailed to the correct location by the Due Date...
What happens to your award if it arrives late...?
It does not even get looked at.

Where to Mail the Award: Most Award applications are sent to FFGC Headquarters
Exceptions are listed in the description of the award---for example
Award #4 is mailed to the District Director

The Difference between Category and Class

Category

FFGC awards that are eligible to be sent on to DSR/NGC for further competition are subdivided into categories. Categories are numbered 1 thru 5 and correspond to the categories used by DSR and NGC. Again, study the category descriptions and enter the category that matches your club size.

The new award categories which have been added to many of our FFGC awards are as follows:

1. Small Clubs/Circles 29 members and under
2. Medium Clubs/Circles with 30-59 members
3. Large Clubs/Circles with 60-99 members
4. Ex-Large Clubs/Circles with 100 members +
5. District or Individual (may have been added to a few awards as appropriate)

Class

Most awards will be subdivided into classes or categories. This allows for clubs of similar sizes to compete against each other or in some cases, an award can be offered to an individual member, to a club, district, etc. This allows for the possibility of many more awards being won! Awards that are offered only at the FFGC level and that do not correspond with any DSR/NGC awards may be subdivided into classes indicated by letters: A, B, C, etc. Read the description for each class to determine which class fits your application.

Editing your own work? "The KEY"

Everyone should have another pair of fresh eyes to look over your award. If there is no such person available, print out the report, read it out loud and you can even record yourself while doing it. You will then discover what errors you have made. Looking for Descriptive Words to make your writing more colorful and interesting visit <http://www.descriptivewords.org>
Just the facts, however your narrative can take those judging your award on a journey to the actual event itself by adding a few well chosen words.

Eligibility:

- A. Only clubs, circles, groups of clubs and individuals who are members of FFGC in good standing are eligible to apply UNLESS OTHERWISE STATED.
- B. If clubs, circles, groups of clubs and individuals who are members of FFGC in good standing have won an FFGC award the previous year, they will not be eligible to apply for or win the same award the following year.
- C. A group of clubs is defined as: federation of clubs, council club on the circle plan or neighboring club.
- D. High school, intermediate, junior gardener clubs, other youth groups, or individual youth must be sponsored by member club(s) or circle(s).

Categories for Awards

For ease of navigating the Awards Site, one may click on the categories below and choose an applicable award.

Read through all the requirements of the award before the program or event occurs. Share this information with the chair, so information you need can be obtained. This is particularly important in the areas of visual documentation, such as before and after pictures, and the financial report.

Leadership Awards - A garden club leader is one who accepts responsibility, provides a cooperative spirit and shares honor is due in all phases of garden club work.

Each Garden Club of each Federation or Council of garden clubs may nominate one member for Award 1, 2 and 3. Circles may also nominate one member for award #3.

If your club isn't already recognizing its members that have shown evidence of outstanding leadership, the awards committee or chair can bring it to the attention of their Officers to further investigate. Review Awards 1-10. There are programs that your club may be interested in adding to your list of goals.

Publication Awards - Yearbook, Newsletter/Magazine/Bulletin; Publication; Website.

Everyone puts together a Yearbook, provide the member that does yours with information on what FFGC is looking for before they begin work on the Yearbook. The same is true with all your club's

Each Category in the next 8 sections carry the same idea of keeping your members and chairs up on awards that are offered, looking at the programs of your garden club offerings and recognizing which awards should be pursued.

If a member has a certain talent or interest you may want to encourage them to look at a specific award they may not be aware of. ex photography.

NGC Mission Statement

National Garden Clubs, Inc. provides education, resources and national networking opportunities for its members, to promote the love of gardening, floral design, civic, and environmental responsibility.

FFGC Mission Statement

“To further the education of the members and the public in the fields of gardening, horticulture, botany, floral design, landscape design, environmental awareness through the conservation of natural resources, civic beautification, nature studies, and to instill in our youth the love of gardening and the respect and protection of the environment.”

Pre-Planning	Keep FFGC and NGC’s Mission Statements in mind	Read the Award description and tend to details it asks for. Review frequently.
Program announced	You begin....	Fill out top portion of application, copy the award description
Contact Chair	attend planning meetings, gather any information sheets provided make note of how many are volunteering for each segment of program	Choose an Award for this event
Photographer- ask for the types of pictures you need taken	Photographer *Before and After pics	Pictures that are relevant to tell the story of the event. Reread the Award Description: before and after pictures? specific pictures?
Publicity Contact Do they know the deadlines of Florida Gardener, Florida Gardening?	Media Releases- you need to know if you should be looking for an article coming out in the newspaper. Enlist members to help you keep an eye out for articles in the paper.	If on TV can you get a script. Announced it on FB, On FFGC site, FFGC FB page, share pictures with NGC, etc. Check to see if the article is also listed on the internet.
Financials	How much was spent?	How was it paid for?
Involvement- garden club members, community, another organization, etc	How many participated?	What percentage of membership participated?
If this program has been done before...	You need to know the history of the event.	If you do not know the history...year it was started, annually? Ask a member that does.

The KEY to Good Planning is having a plan

A Week to Go
Chairman	Set up a time for a post event interview.	Specify what information you need.
Plan on participating in or attending the event	* if possible you need to have an awards committee, so you are not having to be at every event if you so choose.	Take your own pictures too.
Get your ideas on paper	Documenting as you go along allows you to formulate your ideas specifically to what the award requires.	If you wait until after the event is over, you may not have everything you need to write an excellent award.
Publicity	Keep checking for an article or announcement published in the
The Week After...
The Program went off without a hitch! Now what?
Chairman Post Interview	Ride the wave of enthusiasm with the Chairperson and committee.	You are now a reporter getting your story. If you have done all of your preplanning you would have set up a "let's get together" for coffee or lunch and go over the wonderful event.
Gathering Documentation	All the items that had to be purchased, those receipts should be turned in by now.	Make certain you have picked up copies of the program, information sheets, anything that has been handed out. Do not rely of the chair to have extra copies.
Photographer	Call and ask them when they can email you the pictures.	or ask for the pictures be put on a flash drive
Flyers and handouts	If you can, have the person(s) that typed up flyers, programs to email you the pdf.	I love copy and paste, you can reduce the sizes right on the computer.
Social Media and Newsletters I take pictures myself so I get to work right away, posting on Facebook, Newsletter, and on our webpage. But not everyone can do this or has the time.	I like to get the information out right after an event, it builds up the morale of the club. If you haven't got a webpage or a Facebook page, why not? It is easy and not time consuming once you get it up and running.	We all want more active members in our Garden Club. Being a member of an outstanding group in the community is FUN! Also when potential members move into your community they can look you up and find out all about you.
Writing the Award	Tell the Story - who, what, when, where, and why?	Look at the Judges Sections Achievement and Participation

THINK Like a Judge

Review HOW the JUDGES judge your Award Application.
You want to know just what the judges are looking for.

Presentation	5 pts.	Judges look for Neat, concise, all information included on the FFGC Awards Application Forms (3 pages allowed) or in the Book of Evidence (if required).
Achievement	65 pts.	Size and Scope of project, need and fulfillment, benefit, accomplishment, comprehensiveness of work, activities to attain goals, evaluation of goals reached, educational value, prior planning, very brief history if continuing project, financial report, other.
Participation	15 pts.	Size of Club, involvement of members, youth, community, professionals, residents in facilities, others. (not all have to be involved)
