"Send for our Fund Raising Offer"

President's Message

The pleasure of visiting with each district during the month of October brought joy to the heart of your president. She will always remember your many courtesies and the warm hospitality extended her on her tours of the districts.

We have many accomplishments in which we can take pride. Among them, the dedication of Wekiwa Youth Camp and the first Environmental Youth Conference (SEEK '74) which took place this summer.

In this issue we have the Horticulture Schedule for the State Flower Show to be held in West Palm Beach, April 12-13 and the program for the Tropical Short Course at Broward Community College January 28-29. We hope you will read these articles and participate.

The garden club Short Course at the University of Florida has been rescheduled and the price cut for our benefit. Please, all clubs and circles, try to budget tuition for at least one member. It could mean two or three good programs for you for the coming year.

Come and discover the pleasure of hanging baskets, the variety of ferns, cultivation of wildflowers, solar energy for greenhouses, interpretive designs with foliage, and more. Read all about it in the January-February issue; April 1-2 is the time.

DEADLINES FOR JAN.-FEB. ISSUE

Editorial — Nov. 15
 Advertising — Dec. 1
 Circulation — Dec. 1

Sadness had come to the board again in the deaths of two beloved members, Blanche Hopkins, World Gardening Chairman for many years, and Bobbie Moffett, 1975 Symposium Chairman. Memorials for both may be sent to FFGC Headquarters.

For those of you who spend your summers away and want to receive your Gardener upon return — notify Circulation Manager so your card can be pulled and reinserted at your request. Returned magazines are costly.

As we face the last few months of this administration it would be good to think of the objectives set forth at the beginning and make a check of your accomplishments. Concentrate on the weak spots.

What plans are you making for the Bicentennial as individual clubs? Have you checked on the Bartram Trail or other historic trails, buildings or trees in your area that can be preserved? Marking and planting the Bartram Trail is a project of Deep South and is something in which we should all become involved.

Are you making a collage to compete with others in the state — the winner to go to National Headquarters?

Since this is the season for gifts our beautiful all-color flower arrangement calendar is a perfect gift for non-garden club people as well as our FFGC Cookbooks and the Bright of America place mats, notepaper and Christmas cards. Profits from these sales can be used to further your own projects.

As our thoughts turn to the joys of Thanksgiving and the blessings of Christmas, those days so meaningful in our lives and in the history of our nation, let us keep a few quiet moments for ourselves in which to celebrate in spirit and in deed.

May a keen awareness of the many gifts of our inheritance enable us as garden club members to bring even more bountiful and pleasing gifts to future generations.

Let us continue to keep the dream we have for this beautiful land of ours as we enjoy and celebrate the festivities of the holidays.

Your President and the members of the Board of Directors wish you all a happy and glorious season.

wekiwa youth camp

It was a grand and glorious day July 21st when FFGC's own Youth Camp at Wekiwa Springs was formally dedicated and opened for business — 4 busy weeks of camping.

It was hoped the Gardener would receive an article and pictures of the big day by our deadline, but such was not the case.

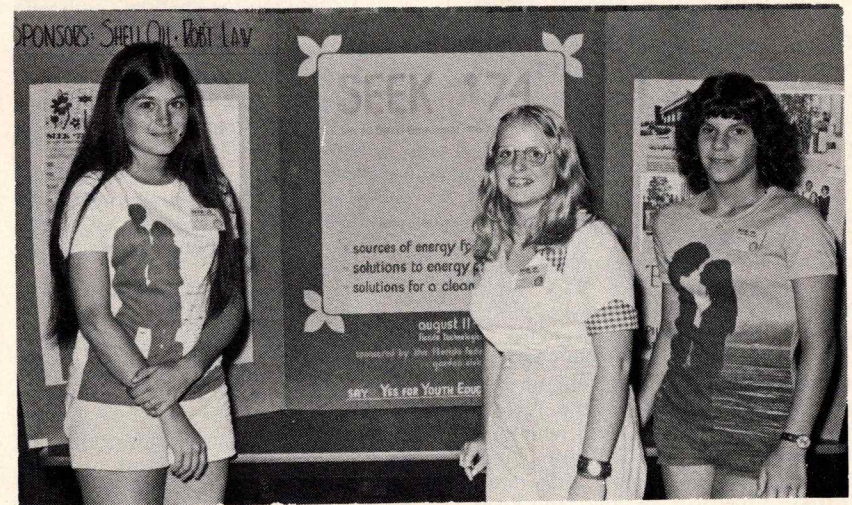

Look for a full report in the January/February issue.

The FLORIDA GARDENER

BLANCHE HOPKINS — MR. M. J. BARFIELD

Another long-time board member died during the summer — Blanche Hopkins (Mrs. Arlie) of Melbourne — World Gardening Chairman for many years. An excellent article and picture of Blanche appeared in the May/June 1973 Florida Gardener. She was hard-working, faithful and dearly loved.

Our sympathy goes to our president Berne Davis, who lost her father, Mr. M. J. Barfield, during the summer.

High School students admire the "S.E.E.K. '74" educational exhibit.

collage contest

National Council's Bicentennial Collage Contest has been mentioned briefly in past issues of The Florida Gardener. Watch for a full list of rules and an entry blank in the January/February issue. Meanwhile, be looking for interesting material and ideas to incorporate in YOUR collage. Let's all join the fun ... it doesn't cost anything and who knows ... Florida might be the winner!

Apologies — for the wrong date on the cover of the last Gardener. It should have been September/October.

19th ANNUAL TROPICAL SHORT COURSE

"A New Focus on Florida Fruits and Flowers"

Broward Community College, Central Campus
3501 S. W. Davie Road, Fort Lauderdale

The 1975 Tropical Short Course will be a bit International in flavor, inasmuch as one of the featured speakers comes to us from Heslington, York, England.

Mr. George W. Smith, a founder of several floral societies in Britain, is regarded as one of the foremost judges and demonstrators of the National Association of Flower Arrangements Societies of Great Britain.

He has lectured and judged in many countries including East Africa, Rhodesia, South Africa, Malta, Italy, France, Cyprus and Lebanon. His subject for the Short Course will be "Flower Arrangements Featuring Florida Fruits and Flowers".

Mrs. Patrica Kroh will give a demonstration on "Contemporary Table Settings for Home and Show".

Mrs. Kroh's talents are well known in Florida and she has a message that will put more color and enthusiasm in our daily routine of table settings.

A National Council Flower Show School Instructor, Mrs. Kroh is the author of several books and is a teacher. Her programs are of professional quality, yet have a relaxing effect on her audiences. She brings to them the warmth and love she feels for her work.

Dr. Lanny Neel has an interesting program for all horticulturists entitled "Focusing in on Recent Advances in Horticultural Research". He has a B.S. degree in ornamental horticulture from Fresno State College and an M.S. and Ph.D. in Botany from the University of California. Dr. Neel is on the faculty of the University of Florida at the Agricultural Research Center.

Mrs. Wilhelmina Feinberg has chosen for her program "Landscaping Small Homes and Small Areas". She has been a practicing Landscape Architect for over 20 years and an instructor in Landscape Design Seminars at Radcliffe Institute for the past 8 years. She is an instructor of Horticulture in the Flower Show Schools and a Master Judge.

Mrs. Frances Hunter, an outstanding Horticulture Specialist in Florida, has chosen for her program the title "Begonias for Beds, Balconies and Bay Windows", which will provide new ideas on adding color to our planting.

Mr. James Fischer, bromeliad expert, will speak on "From Pups to Points" which will aid those interested in growing bromeliads.

Please return the attached registration form at your early convenience as space is limited.

DIVISION V – GARDENS

*'I love this small, sweet, quiet place
 Where earth and sky come face to face . . .
 I need wide spaces in my heart
 Where faith and I can go apart
 And grow serene.'* — Anonymous

Come alive, become involved with a garden — the 'in-thing' which gardening has been since Eve. The wonders of plant growth catch our attention . . . quicken our curiosity. . . nowhere can we express our own particular artistic sense better than in a garden.

Class 1. DISCOVER, GARDEN HIGH IN THE SKY 12' wide x 8' deep
"The Sky's the Limit"
 A new concept: an apartment balcony or roof top. High in the sky is a heavenly place to make a garden, should this be the pattern of your life. Create an extension of the living areas of Florida homes.

Class 2. ENJOY, GARDENS BY THE DOOR 15' wide x 18' deep
"He who plants a garden, plants happiness." — Chinese proverb
 Capture and hold the rewards of Florida's climate in even the smallest areas. A garden featuring the exotic, colorful plant materials that Florida offers so abundantly.

Class 3. DON'T DESTROY, GARDENS OF WIDENING HORIZONS 12' wide x 15' deep
"Nihil Sine Labore" — "Nothing Without Labor" — Old Motto
 Gardens have a universal appeal to the heart of man. We widen our involvement through our appreciation of cultures of other countries and their influence upon the natural world around us. A garden to be expressive of those generations who gardened before us.
